

Don't lie to me, lie against me.

Don't you lie to me
said you'd die for me
never saw you cry for me.

Get down on your knees
until they fucking bleed.

I said don't go. Please

Please

PLEASE

Like a slap in the face your filthy fall from grace.

Yes, when you met me you were with her
But you said she'd turned bitter
And I was so sweet
We burned in raw heat.

I hate you. Leave now

The pain deep inside of me
burning inside of me
never again hide from me.

Get up and go.
Move inside me real slow.

Don't lie to me, lie against me.

I need you like oxygen
to make my head sane again.
Rip through me like violence
Or death calls in the silence.

Lay your lying lips upon me
can't have you gone from me.

Don't lie to me, lie against me.

Who lies for you will lie against you.

(Bosnian proverb)

Don't lie to me, lie against me

Written by Charlotte Brookes

The Girl: Loren O'Dair

Camera: Amelie Exton

Design/art direction: Mark Noad

Part of the 26 Lies project: www.26lies.org.uk

© 2016 Mark Noad: www.therightidea.co.uk

Words © 2016 Charlotte Brookes